REPORT NO. 1
 CASE ORIGINATED AT PHILADELPHIA FILE NO. 105-226-JMF

REPORT MADE AT Philadelphia	DATE WHEN MADE NOV 4 1949	PERIOD FOR WHICH MADE 6/18, 17/8, 22, 27, 8/17, 30; 9/20, 26-30; 10/3-5, 13, 18/49	REPORT MADE BY [REDACTED] b7C
TITLE 0 NATIONALIST ACTION LEAGUE			CHARACTER OF CASE INTERNAL SECURITY - X 45001

SYNOPSIS OF FACTS: The Committee for Nationalist Action, temporary predecessor to the NAL, was organized prior to the Republican Convention at Philadelphia in June 1948. The NAL organized during the Democratic Convention in July 1948; held its first regular meeting in October of that year; setting out as its purposes the development of a mass nationalist following to fight against Communism and its alien backers." The League until 6/1/49 had its own publication, "National Progress." However, it then merged with the anti-Communist paper "Common Sense" edited by CONDE MCGINLEY at Union, N.J. In August 1949 the merger came about whereby the "Loyal American Group," an organization of similar principles, whose headquarters were in Union, N.J., was absorbed by the League and its Director, WILLIAM J. O'BRIEN, became Assistant Director of the NAL. During the same period, efforts were made to incorporate the "National Renaissance Party," Beacon, N.Y., into the League. However, its Director, JAMES H. MADOLE, would not deviate from his proposed program and, therefore, instead of a merger, terms were worked out for close cooperation between the organizations. Close cooperation has also been in effect between the National Blue Star Mothers of America and the League. The NAL opposes the United Nations, the World Bank, loans to foreign governments, and shipment of displaced persons into the U.S. Further, it opposes legislation which would favor the FEPC, Civil Rights, socialized medicine, measures which would outlaw anti-Semitism, peace time conscription, present immigration laws and the present tax laws. Activity resulting from the organization's appearance on the Attorney General's supplemental list of subversive organizations on 4/21/49 set out.

Origin

The Nationalist Action League is the outgrowth of the Committee for Nationalist Action, the organization headed by MacFARLAND, which came into being just prior to the Republican National Convention in Philadelphia during June 1948.

The Nationalist Action League was organized during the Democratic National Convention in July 1948, during which it lent active support to the Southern attempt to wrest control of the Party from "Communists and other foreign influences." At that time it scheduled meetings and managed "for the first time since Pearl Harbor to operate on the streets of Philadelphia a sound truck which took the message of Christian Nationalism to the general public."

At the last meeting in July, it was proposed to establish the League as a permanent Nationalist organization, but concrete plans in this direction were postponed during the summer months. However, on October 29, 1948, preparations were made to begin the program "for developing a mass Nationalist following in Philadelphia and for using this following as an effective political instrument in the campaigns of 1950 and 1952."

Objectives

The following are the objectives of the Nationalist Action League, as set out on the stationery of the organization:

1. To promote the national consciousness of the American people and to oppose all plans and doctrines linking their fate with foreign causes.
2. To undertake all lawful activities designed to preserve the natural racial values upon which this nation was founded and has endured.
3. To educate the people with regard to their Constitution, republican institutions, and the free enterprise economic system, which has made the world our debtors.
4. To undertake the removal of the power to control money values from the hands of private manipulators, placing it with Congress, where the Constitution states it lawfully belongs.
5. To recognize the just rights of free labor and free management working as a team for the greater material prosperity of our whole people.
6. To fight for a just limitation of the power to tax, which is today impoverishing the American people in the interests of supporting world burdens.
7. To work toward the development of a truly free press by lending encouragement and support to independent publishers not under hidden economic control.

8. To improve the moral fibre of our national society by education and appropriate legislation.
9. To inculcate the healthy spirit of Nationalism into art, music, literature, the drama, and all other fields of American cultural endeavor.
10. To defend the rights and freedoms of all Americans, while resisting the trend towards special privileges for politically favored minorities.

The Loyal American Group is an organization containing associates of [REDACTED] who are rabidly anti-Semitic. On August 2, 1949 [redacted] advised the informant that he had just received a circular letter sent out by [redacted] which stated that the merger is official. On July 19, 1949 [redacted] advised that efforts to merge with the National Renaissance Party, Beacon, New York had not worked out. He said that JAMES H. MADOLE, Director of the organization, and he have no basis for merger, inasmuch as MADOLE has a very positive program worked out and will not deviate from it. [redacted] said, however, that terms were arranged whereby the National Renaissance Party and the Nationalist Action League would cooperate very closely. [redacted] indicated that MADOLE's program was similar to the ideal on which MUSSOLINI's corporate state had been established. (7-19-49)

The Philadelphia Evening Bulletin on February 19, 1948 carried an article in which the following information was reflected:

After a 2 3/4 hour hearing, the City Council's Committee on Law approved an FEPC ordinance on the afternoon of the above date. The Committee heard two score speakers of whom only half a dozen opposed the measure to outlaw discrimination in employment, because of race, creed or nationality. According to the paper, those in opposition to the law included CATHERINE V. BROWN and LILLIAN PARKS of the National Blue Star Mothers of America and W. HENRY MacFARLAND, Jr.

On February 27, 1948, the informant attended an oyster supper sponsored by the National Blue Star Mothers and advised that among the speakers was [REDACTED] spoke at length on the Truman Civil Rights program and the upheaval it caused in the Southern states. An informant made available a copy of "Action Report" edited by MacFARLAND and dated August 1, 1948, which contained an account of the National Convention of the Republican Party in Philadelphia, as summarized below:

Local groups cooperated according to the report. The National Blue Star Mothers, "one of the very few groups active throughout the war years," and the Current Events Club of Philadelphia joined forces with unattached Nationalists here to form the Committee for Nationalist Action some six weeks in advance of the Convention. The report indicated that a bookstore was obtained through the efforts of the Blue Star Mothers, within six blocks of the Convention. There the group established a central meeting point for Nationalists and a clearing house for thousands of pieces of literature which was later released. During the afternoon and evening of June 23, 1948, public demonstrations were held by the Committee for Nationalist Action in front of Convention Hall.

The final activity of the group took place on June 24, 1948, when a meeting was held at Turners Hall in Philadelphia. At this meeting a report on the Convention was submitted to those present. [REDACTED] 8-10-48) b2/b7D

The same group took an active part in the Democratic Convention held in July 1948. According to an undated pamphlet made available by the informant entitled "Convention Activities" Nationalists took an active part in supporting the Southern wing of the Democratic Party in its "attempt to steer the TRUMAN faction clear of an invasion of States' Rights." Sound trucks and literature distributions were used to carry the "Nationalist message" to Convention delegates and the people of Philadelphia. According to the report, "The Democratic Convention presented the organization with no opposition." Two meetings were held, one before and the other during the affair. At the latter, discussion included the Christian Nationalist Convention at St. Louis, Missouri to be held in August 1948. [REDACTED] 10-27-48) b2/b7D

The same informant advised that among the Nationalists from other parts of the United States attending one or both of the Conventions were the following:

[REDACTED] of "The Cross and The Flag" and [REDACTED] representing "Justice for Way Deal Victims Committee" [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] active Nationalists

The informant made available a copy of "The Call" to the Christian Nationalist Convention, which was scheduled for August 21 and 22, 1949 at St. Louis, Missouri. The informant was advised by [REDACTED] of the National Blue Star Mothers of America, in mid-November 1948 that money contributed by members of the organization now goes to Mr. MacFARLAND's organization, the Nationalist Action League. At the meeting of October 29, 1948 the following was the proposed agenda, according to the confidential informant:

The principles, aims and objectives of the League were to be submitted for approval at the meeting, as well as the rules of membership. In addition to organizational work, the following discussions were to take place:

1. Report on the ~~Christian~~ Nationalist Convention in St. Louis, Mo.
2. How Nationalism has been introduced at Pennsylvania State College.
3. Nationalism and the Townsend Plan.
4. Our friends and foes in the 1948 election.

At the meeting of November 12, 1948, the following was the proposed agenda, according to the confidential informant:

A protest was to be read which would demand future protection against suspected use of the Philadelphia Detective Bureau Agents by private interests who plan to end the Nationalist Action League's anti-Communist and anti-Zionist activities. This discussion further included the organization fight against restored price control, rationing in the United States to benefit Europe; Federal Control of the nation's school system, and the Fair Employment Practices Commission.

It is noted that according to the informant, this meeting could be attended by invitation only, and that "watchers" would be present to challenge the admittance of any person in opposition to the League's ideas.

Regarding the meeting of December 10, 1948, no information is available.

At the meeting of January 15, 1949, the following information is available, according to the confidential informant:

Attendance at the meeting consisted of ten men and twelve women. The main topic for discussion was the proposed legislation regarding the Fair Employment Practices Commission, which all members of the organization opposed. Plans were made for a rally at Reverb Plaza during the last week of January. A discussion of great length was held regarding Germany as the only continental ally of the United States capable of stopping Russia. According to the informant, both Jews and Russians were condemned during this discussion.

The informant [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] According to [REDACTED] advised that he was not pro-Nazi or pro-anything but pro-American. He said that he could not see America feeding Europe, except as a matter of actually keeping people from starvation. [REDACTED] was unable to elaborate on these statements.

At the meeting of January 29, 1949 the following was the proposed agenda, according to the confidential informant:

Preparation was to be made for a public rally in the state at which the organization would oppose statewide creation of the Fair Employment Practices Commission. Further discussions included the offer from an anti-Communist paper to publish all data on the Nationalist Action League and to supply the League with its Philadelphia mailing list; the possible appearance as a speaker for the organization of a United States Congressman; a request made to the Nationalist Action League by the New England Dental Society for a speaker on the topic "The Place of Socialized Medicine in the World Socialist Offensive."

At the rally of February 1, 1949, the following was discussed, according to Special Agents [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] b7C

The Fair Employment Practices Commission legislation was the main theme of the rally. According to statements made by [REDACTED] b7C Europeans were encouraged to come to the United States and were to be given equal opportunities to those of American citizens in securing jobs under this Bill. He indicated that in times of depression, American citizens might lose their positions while European immigrants would retain theirs.

During the course of the demonstration, pamphlets were distributed denouncing the Fair Employment Practices Commission legislation as a Zionist-Marxist plan to install an alien philosophy government, prejudicial to the welfare of the American people as a whole.

At the meeting of February 11, 1949, no information was obtained regarding discussions.

At the meeting of April 18, 1949, according to the confidential informant, [REDACTED] b7C b7D

At the meeting of May 11, 1949, according to the confidential informant, 26 women and 31 men were present. The principal speaker was [REDACTED] of "Common Sense," a newspaper published in Union, New Jersey. [REDACTED] stated in his anti-Communist speech that the backers of Communism are in New York and Hollywood. He said that he wished to warn the group against phoney anti-Communists, such as WINCHELL and DREW PEARSON, who are spokesmen for the Anti-Defamation League, one of the strongest arms of Communism in the United States. [REDACTED] said that very soon another war would be started and that then TRUMAN would come on the radio to state that the United States is confronted by a crisis, and that he would then appoint a seven man board to take over key positions in the Government. Then, according to [REDACTED] the United States will be under Communists. b7C

[REDACTED] of the League, spoke briefly regarding his trip to Washington to oppose the listing of the Nationalist Action League as subversive. b7C

At the meeting of May 15, 1949, no information regarding discussions was available.

At the meeting of May 20, 1949, according to the confidential informant, a special announcement was to be made regarding the greatest step towards Nationalist unity since Pearl Harbor. The discussion was to involve plans mapped out at a special conference in a small up-state New Jersey town recently to fight Communist and Zionist world government.

At the meeting of May 27, 1949, according to the confidential informant, discussions were to include plans for public activity, in Philadelphia and the surrounding area; plans for rallies which would reach the people by sound truck, radio, and mass literature distribution; and information regarding the merger plan between "Common Sense" and the Nationalist Action League, whereby the aforementioned publication would become the official organ of the organization.

At the meeting of June 10, 1949, according to the confidential informant, the following discussions were to take place:

A report on the establishment of a unit of the Nationalist Action League in the State of Maine; and a discussion of the plans for legal action against the United States Attorney General regarding the listing of the League as subversive.

At the meeting of July 1, 1949, according to the confidential informant, the following was to be discussed:

In regard to the list prepared by Attorney General CLARK, which indicated that the League was subversive, a discussion was to be made disclosing a possible tie-in with the activities of [REDACTED] as judged on the basis of a portion of her sworn testimony. Details were also to be supplied regarding a Jewish raid upon the headquarters of the League's official publication, "Common Sense," in which its courageous [REDACTED] was bodily injured and his records unlawfully confiscated.

b7C

At the meeting of July 15, 1949, according to the confidential informant, plans were to be made for a rally to be held at Reayburn Plaza, Philadelphia, on July 22.

At the rally of July 22, 1949, according to Special Agent [REDACTED] the following occurred:

Speeches made by [REDACTED] at this rally covered a text which involved the dangers with which the liberty of the United States is being confronted. According to [REDACTED] these dangers included Communism, Zionism and World Federation.

[REDACTED] of "Common Sense," related to the audience a general account of the June 17th raid on "Common Sense" by Zionists.

The general purpose of the rally, according to [REDACTED] was to introduce the new official organ of the Nationalist Action League, namely, "Common Sense" to the people of Philadelphia.

The following is a summarization of activity at the meeting on the evening of July 22, 1949, according to the confidential informant:

Attendance consisted of eleven men and fifteen women. Discussion was open regarding the rally held in Rayburn Plaza on the afternoon of this meeting. [REDACTED] indicated that he distributed between 900 and 1,000 copies of the newspaper "Common Sense" during this rally. [REDACTED] indicated that he would like to invite [REDACTED] from California to address the members of the Nationalist Action League and hesitated in such an invitation only because he did not know whether a big enough crowd could be obtained to cover expenses. [REDACTED] spoke of the amalgamation between the Nationalist Action League and "Common Sense." He further spoke about the attempt to spread the League along the eastern seaboard of the United States. b7C

[REDACTED] spoke regarding a World Federation meeting recently held at the Cheltenham High School and gave an account of his heckling at this meeting. The main speaker of the evening was [REDACTED] of the National Renaissance Party. He related that his organization had recently had conflicts with Jewish pickets outside an A&P Store in New York City, where the Jewish people were picketing for the Fair Employment Practices Commission legislation. During [REDACTED] speech, he indicated that what is needed in Philadelphia is 1,000 able bodied ex-Servicemen to back up [REDACTED]. He stated that then the organization would be ready for action. [REDACTED] said that he was not advocating violence here tonight, inasmuch as Philadelphia is not ready for it at this stage. He told his audience not to get the idea that violence is anti-Christian, stating that CHRIST used violence to drive them from the temple. b7C

According to the confidential informant, the following discussions took place at the meeting on August 5, 1949:

Attendance at this meeting consisted of six men and eight women. [REDACTED] read several letters regarding communications received by the League. One of these letters was from [REDACTED] of Hollywood, b7C who requested in behalf of the ~~Hollywood~~ Republican Committee information in the possession of the Nationalist Action League regarding the World Federation Movement.

Another article was read from the New York Post. It described a recent New York rally at which MacFARLAND was a speaker and indicated that MacFARLAND was the most radical of those speaking at the rally. Once during an article contained in the New York Post, the Nationalist Action League was mentioned as being a Fascist organization. [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] b7C [REDACTED] gleefully noted that the word was Fascist and not subversive.

At the meeting of August 19, 1949, no information regarding discussions is available.

At the meeting of September 12, 1949, no information regarding discussions is available.

At the meeting of September 19, 1949 the following was the proposed agenda, according to the confidential informant:

A discussion was held regarding the possibilities of obtaining veterans' organizations to cooperate with the Nationalist Action League, in order that they might "oppose" the 30th Anniversary Meeting of the Communist Party, to be held on September 29, 1949.

Common Sense

The following is a summary of an article entitled X "Nationalist Actionists Join Common Sense" which appeared in Common Sense on June 15, 1949:

On June 1, the Nationalist Action League officially joined forces with Common Sense, the nation's anti-Communist newspaper, in the inauguration of an all-out offensive against ~~Marxism~~ and its insidious front organizations in America. "The action taken represents the first major step to be taken, since the outbreak of World War II, toward a unification of forces opposing the drift toward Marxian, Socialism - the bridge to Soviet Bolshevism - in America."

The article continued by stating that details on the militant program to be carried out by the Nationalist Action League are to be covered in a page which Common Sense will devote in each issue to its activities.

It is further noted that the July 1, 1949 issue of the publication "Common Sense" carries W. HENRY MacFARLAND, Jr. as the Associate Editor of that publication.

The following information was obtained from the June 15, 1949 issue of Common Sense under the caption "Soviet Style Raid Fails to Stop Paper."

"Acting under the power of a trick judgment for $1700 Mr. ROBERT DVORIN, prominent Zionist leader of Linden, New Jersey, manufactured a surprise raid on June 17th upon the office of the Editor of Common Sense. The raid climaxed one phase of a three year battle in which a combination of Communist, Zionist and World Federationist forces have sought the paper's destruction." MCGINLEY when approached by arresting officers, pushed them aside, inasmuch as neither of them had divulged his identity. At that point, the editor was placed under arrest. A struggle thereupon developed in which the deputies attempted to prevent the editor of Common Sense from reaching a telephone. As a result, MCGINLEY, when taken to the police station, had swollen and bleeding wrists, resulting from the abuse of handcuffs with which he had for more than twenty minutes been pulled around.

The following is taken from the July 1, 1949 issue of Common Sense, under the caption "Records Restored; Zionists Challenged;"

According to MCGINLEY, he assumed debts which had accumulated under a previous publisher of the paper and had made an effort to pay them. During a legal transaction, MCGINLEY made an effort to reduce the bill some $1200, the amount, according to the editor, with which he had been overcharged, and had arranged to pay the amount of $1500, which, according to him, was correct. MCGINLEY indicated that items seized from his offices were not items of monetary value. He stated that these items were passed over but that the men were careful to take eight drawers of research information on more than 1,000 Communist fronts, which involved many prominent Jewish leaders. He further indicated that card index files in cardboard boxes were taken from his office.

In the same issue under the heading "Our Sincerest Thanks To Our Friends," the editor of Common Sense indicated that the fight is not yet over as the case covering the amount in dispute will be called in September. According to this article, MCGINLEY is presently out on bail on an assault and battery charge, for supposedly beating up two or four plain clothes Zionists, who walked into his office on June 17th.

Informants available to this office were unable to give any account as to the policy of Common Sense. For that reason, the following titles of articles appearing in the various issues of the publications, as well as a summary of the information contained therein, is set out in an effort to indicate the general policy of Common Sense;

Common Sense - special edition, April 1, 1949 - Contained in this edition is an article entitled "America Whither Thou Goest," by FREDERICK CHARLES WEISS, which indicates in part that "only an utter lack of respect for history can make us blind to the fact that there is only one race on the European continent which can solve, with our help, the decisive problem of our white world in face of the present global Bolshevik onslaught." The article indicates that this race is the German nation.

Under title "A Fair Deal for Germany" by AUSTIN J. APP are set out the following requests:

1. That America demand full integrity of German boundaries.
2. That America minimize the awful calamity of 15 million East and Sudeten and Balkan Germans expelled from their homes.
3. That America should immediately halt the dismantlement of German factories.

Common Sense Edition - June 1, 1949:

This edition contained an editorial entitled "FORRESTAL - His Tragic and Forced Suicide." The article indicated that the powerful Anti-Defamation League furnished their radio spokesmen WINCHELL and PEARSON with material to start rumors which were to discredit FORRESTAL, thereby forcing his resignation as Secretary of Defense.

In this same issue is an editorial entitled "Mrs. F.D.R. Exposed By Cardinal SPELLMAN." This editorial relates that those who have been active in opposing anti-Christian Marxist forces were being encouraged by Cardinal SPELLMAN's exposure of ELEANOR ~~ROOSEVELT~~'s anti-Catholic, pro-Marxist activities.

Common Sense Edition - August 1, 1949:

This issue contains an article entitled "Let Congress Investigate," by MERWIN E. ~~HART~~. In this article the author indicates that Zionists and Communists have influenced American foreign policy since 1933. It stated that the American Politburo forces dictated unconstitutional surrender of Germany, causing needless death of many Germans.

The article further stated that under the Zionist Communist influence, billions of dollars worth of military material were destroyed to weaken America and strengthen Russia.

The same issue contains an article entitled "The White Papers and Bloody History" by TOM ~~LINDER~~. This article states that four or five years ago CORDELL HULL wrote White Papers washing America's hands of blame regarding Japan and that now Secretary of State ACHESON is writing similar papers refuting our country having any guilt concerning the present situation in China.

Common Sense Edition - August 15, 1949;

Appearing in this edition is an article entitled "Zionists Rule Germany." This article advises that non-Zionist Dupes are used as fronts in Germany. It sets out the following Zionists who are in control positions:

Nations

FELIX ~~FRANKFURTER~~

Russian occupied Germany

Another article in this issue entitled "The Federal Council of Churches" by Reverend JOHN R. ~~GILPIN~~, states that the Federal Council of Churches seeks to destroy the faith and through its Communistic tendencies would destroy America.

The following is a summary of the Nationalist Action League news contained in copies of the publication, Common Sense:

Common Sense Edition, June 1, 1949:

This issue contains the following information under the title "NAL News,"

Contained therein is a discussion of the public rally on July 22, 1949 at Reybourn Plaza, Philadelphia. There is also an article pertaining to the Progressive Party of America rally at Cit. Hall on July 22, 1949. This article elaborates on the ability of three Nationalist Action League members who heckled the rally and promptly identified the demonstration as Marxist.

There is also an article entitled "World Government Treason" which protests such a move by the United States and warns that already 21 State Legislatures and 91 Congressmen have gone on record favoring the World Federation Policy:

According to information received by this office dissension has developed between the Nationalist Action League and their official organ, Common Sense.

According to [redacted] and Mrs. [redacted] the merger between the two groups should not have been made without [redacted] having advised the Nationalist Action League that he had incurred a large debt. [redacted] and [redacted] indicated that other members of the Nationalist Action League thought it was terrible that [redacted] incurred such a debt and then asked the League to merge with them without explaining it. [redacted] has been asked by [redacted] to pay $10 for a half page spread in the publication Common Sense since the merger has been accomplished. [redacted] indicated that he would obtain a half page in various publications for this amount. [redacted] (8-14-49)

In late August 1948 [redacted] advised [redacted] that they had planned to have an eight page paper allowing one page to [redacted] for his Nationalist Action League. He said, however, that Common Sense was unable to finance such a paper and that in fact they were finding it difficult to finance a four page edition. He stated that inasmuch as only four pages would be available that [redacted] would have to limit his material to an amount not exceeding 1/2 page. According to the informant, [redacted] was more than shocked at the formality with which [redacted] presented this situation. [redacted] (8-25-49)

[REDACTED] sent out invitations to various veterans groups, with the exception of the Jewish War Veterans, regarding the pre-ROBESON meeting to be held September 29, 1949 at Reynolds Hall, 1416 North Broad Street. [REDACTED] (9-26-49)

An informant made available to this office a copy of the pamphlet issued by [REDACTED] which advised that the purpose of this "Red sponsored affair" was to agitate Communist elements in Philadelphia in preparation for the appearance of PAUL ROBESON during the middle part of October.

b7C

According to [REDACTED] it was "ROBESON who led an organized band of 'hoodlums' in mass rioting in Peekskill, New York on September 4th. He sent his son to the Soviet Union to be educated. He has publically expressed his love for the atheistic and liberty-destroying Bolsheviks. He has sought to portray the American Negro People as traitors to their Country, by stating that they will not defend it in case of an attack by the Soviet war machine." [REDACTED] continued his notice with the statement that "We want no Communist-led rioting in Philadelphia, such as that which terrified the loyal citizens of Peekskill, N.Y., on September 4th! We therefore call upon all civic, religious, veteran and

b7C

"patriotic groups to join with us, on the evening of September 29th, in letting the Communists know that the great majority of Philadelphians are opposed to their program of treason and violence."

[redacted] requested that "all loyal Americans" gather on the evening of September 29th in an orderly and peaceful fashion, to serve notice upon the Communists there assembled that while they are free to meet together under the provisions of our U. S. Constitution, their disloyal use of this freedom is not going un-noted. b7C

In conclusion [redacted] advised in his notice that "In the European countries now enslaved by the Soviets, the so-called 'silent treatment' was at first employed. It did not stop the Marxist plotters, but rather it aided them in gaining a firm foothold which was later to bring them revolutionary success. We, in America, must not commit the same folly. We must let the Red elements know that we are vigilant and aware of their anti-American maneuvers." b7C

This announcement was signed "The Citizens Committee to Expose Communism," 876 Granite Street, Philadelphia, Pa. MacFARLAND was listed as Chairman of the Committee. [redacted] (10-13-49) b2 b7D

On the evening of September 29, 1949, Special Agent [redacted] observed the following: b7C

At 8:20 PM, three women, whose names were not known, but who have been seen associating with [redacted] in a previous League activity, were seen to enter the 30th Anniversary Meeting of District 3, Communist Party, USA, held at Reynolds Hall, 1416 North Broad Street. At 8:40 PM, [redacted] and three other women, whose identity was not known, were observed standing in front of Reynolds Hall. No additional activity was noted. b7C

According to an informant, the "pre-ROBESON meeting" was actually the 30th Anniversary Meeting of the Communist Party, USA, District No. 3. During the meeting, [redacted] Organizer of the Delaware Section, Communist Party, USA, District 3, indicated that "hoodlums" were outside the hall, and he believed that they would "perform another Peekskill." He said that the "hoodlums" were very much surprised to see that the Party members were a fighting group that would stand for no foolishness. [redacted] continued by saying that the "hoodlums" outside were not to be underestimated; that they were out to kill; and that the Party must stand shoulder to shoulder in the fight to preserve the Democratic way of life. [redacted] (10-3-49) b2 b7C b7D

[REDACTED] said that the concert to be held by PAUL ROBESON at the Met on October 14, 1949 is to be picketed by veterans groups. He intended again to notify local veterans groups and request that they picket such a gathering. [REDACTED] (9-26, 29-49)

The informant made available a ticket to the ROBESON concert which announced as follows:

"The Committee of One Thousand presents PAUL ROBESON at the Met, Broad and Poplar Streets at 7:30 PM, October 14, 1949."

The same informant offered a mimeographed pamphlet entitled "Committee of One Thousand," which described the Committee as being composed of "youth, veterans and students who feel that PAUL ROBESON should be allowed to speak." According to the notice, the Committee of One Thousand "protest the violence that occurred at Peekskill and the attacks against the civil rights of the negro people." [REDACTED] (10-18-49)

On the evening of October 14, 1949, Special Agent [REDACTED] observed the following:

b7C

At 8:30 PM, [REDACTED] and five other persons, one man and four women, whose names were not known, but who have been seen associating with [REDACTED] in previous League activity, were observed standing at the corner of Broad and Poplar Streets observing the activity at the "ROBESON Rally." The group did not picket or heckle the meeting and at no time was the presence of any veterans organizations noted.

Legislative Activities

The informant produced a press release dated April 11, 1949 and also the April 15, 1949 edition of "National Progress" which, in part revealed that the Nationalist Action League branded the Fair Employment Practices Act in Pennsylvania as unconstitutional and a menace to America's national defense in event of war. According to MacFARLAND, Director of the League, the Fair Employment Practices Commission has no widespread support, but is merely a creature of the Communist Party of Pennsylvania and a handful of minority racial agitators.

The League offers the following objections to the Fair Employment Practices Commission:

1. That it is an unconstitutional usurpation of the prerogatives of free enterprise to permit a state to fix policies of employment, dischargement and promotion.
2. That FEPC is a Communist Party backed project.
3. That its operation as called for in the bills asking its enactment follows the system of Bureaucratic rules, as found in the Soviet Union.
4. That its establishment in Pennsylvania would menace and result in serious racial conflicts in the event of depression or other economic dislocation. [REDACTED] 4-27-49, 6-7-49) b2/b7D

The Nationalist Action League respects and promotes the true civil rights of all American citizens irrespective of race, creed or color. It opposes, however, the attempts being made by aggressive groups of Jewish, negro and other minorities to demand under the guise of civil rights, special privileges and favored treatment not accorded to all citizens.

The League views with special alarm the development of racial voting blocs whose partisans carry on political activity not for American interest and the general welfare of all, but for the legislation that causes benefits only to themselves. [REDACTED] 8-2-49) b2/b7D

The following are the views of the League regarding socialized medicine:

The Nationalist Action League believes that the socialized medicine plans offered are misleading in that they indicate that free medical services will be obtained by the under-privileged. According to the League, all bills thus far presented provide some method of compulsory cash deductions. The League further believes that under all bills thus far presented, those persons who would enjoy the benefits of socialized medicine would be compelled to accept the services of physicians selected by a politically selected and directed bureaucracy created for the purpose. The League further indicates that such a bill would require doctors to be on the right side of the political fence, and states that a doctor who refuses to enter the plan would be endangered by the politically appointed physicians placed in his community. According to the League, state or socialized medicine is from beginning to end a scheme of political compulsion, and any plan which joins medicine with politics must be seen as a menace to the very lives of those who are supposedly to benefit by its provisions. [REDACTED] 8-20-49) b2/b7D

The January 1948 issue of "Jewish Life," a publication issued monthly by the Morning Freiheit Association, contains an article on Page 22 entitled "'Who Opposes The Buckley Bill?' by WILLIAM ~~EVNER~~ EVNER.

The Sunday edition of The Worker dated January 9, 1944 on Page 3 sets forth an article by WILLIAM Z. ~~FOSTER~~ FOSTER, Chairman, Communist Party, USA. This article states that "The 'Morning Freiheit' is one of many papers either owned or supported by the Communist Party."

The following portions of the article "Who Opposes The Buckley Bill?" are quoted:

"The ~~Buckley~~ Buckley Bill is actually the first measure in Congress designed to curb anti-Semitic agitation in a practical manner.

"In attacking the Buckley Bill, anti-semites wrapped themselves in the American Flag and screamed that their Constitutional rights are in jeopardy. Typical is the campaign now waged by an old Fascist and anti-Semite, one W. HENRY MacFARLAND, JR., whose headquarters are at 876 Granite Street, Philadelphia, Pa. and who serves as coordinator of various anti-Semitic outfits in the area.

"In writing Congressman BUCKLEY, sponsor of the Bill, MacFARLAND, states: 'When I first reviewed your Bill in my periodical some months ago, I explained its provisions and went on to make the statement that, should it be passed into law, I should consider it my duty to commit a definite violation of the new statute in order to gain a clear cut legal decision as to its Constitutionality. I am not in a financial condition which would even so much as permit me to meet the bail which might be set until a hearing of the case, but as an American citizen, I would prefer months or even years of physical imprisonment to the greater tyranny of the abridgement of the first article in the amendments in the United States Constitution.'

"MacFARLAND calls on the first amendment of the Constitution to defend his right to disseminate such monstrous libels as Jewish Ritual, Murder, The Atom Plot, Jewish Bolshevism and other filth and nauseam. On sending out his attacks on the Buckley Bill, MacFARLAND generally encloses such poison tracts as 'Has Congress Abdicated to International Jewry?'

"National Progress," "FEPC Is Communistic, Regimentation, Unconstitutional."

The article subsequently quotes again from MacFARLAND's letter as follows:

"Representative BUCKLEY, I am a publisher of a small mimeograph periodical in which I have upon many occasions felt it necessary to criticize Jewish organizations and their spokesmen for their un-American attempts toward the suppression of Constitutionally assured rights, and the coercion of American citizens who oppose FEPC, the RIO, the UN and other projects favored by the majority of Jewish groups in this nation. Because of this fact, the Bill which you have introduced would directly effect my right to criticize these forces, and I oppose it on Constitutional grounds."

Regarding national defense, the Nationalist Action League favors any and all measures which strengthen the American peace.

Militarily the League favors an adequate benefit for supplying our Army, Navy and Air Force with the finest and most modern fighting equipment and for providing our citizens with the maximum amount of life and property protection in case of attack. It opposes, however, peace time conscription as an implement of totalitarian doctrine, which has no place in America. It also denies the value of military alliances with collapsing governments outside the Western American Hemisphere. [REDACTED] 8-2-49) b2/b7D

The League favors the establishment of a selective immigration code, excluding all non-white, non-Christian - western peoples, and providing for flexible quotas for other immigrants which may be regulated to the social and economic conditions prevailing at any stated time. The NAL likewise calls for the orderly exclusion of illegal immigrants that now reside here, as well as those who are shown to be of divided national allegiance. [REDACTED] 8-2-49) b2/b7D

The League opposes present Federal taxes, which it considers at a confiscating level, and which are rapidly exhausting the incentives of free enterprise and private investments.

The League rejects the temporary resort to mere tax reduction as a means of relief. It favors a Constitutional amendment which will limit the power of Federal Government to tax, basing this limit upon fair percentages of individual incorporate profits which in no case would exceed 40% of the same. [REDACTED] 8-2-49) b2/b7D

Activity Resulting from Organization's Appearance on Attorney General's List

The informant furnished [REDACTED] statement by MacFARLAND [REDACTED] regarding the appearance of the Nationalist Action League and the Committee for Nationalist Action, both organizations having been under the directorship of MacFARLAND, on the supplemental list of subversive organizations released to the press on April 27, 1949. The following is a summary of that statement:

"In view of the fact the members of both organizations are loyal and patriotic citizens, whose sole purpose in organizing has been to oppose foreign entanglements and unconstitutional alterations in our fundamental American form of government," the Nationalist Action League and the Committee for Nationalist Action authorized MacFARLAND to seek the removal of both organizations' names from the list prepared in the offices of Attorney General CLARK. In view of the position taken by the Department of Justice, MacFARLAND indicated that it was interesting to note that prior to releasing his first edition of the publication, "National Progress" in 1945, he addressed statements to the Attorney General indicating that he would send copies of the publication for review. According to MacFARLAND, a reply was received from a subordinate of this Department, stating that they were not interested in receiving copies.

MacFARLAND advised in his statement that the Committee for Nationalist Action operated for a limited time during the National Conventions of 1948. Following the adjournment of these Conventions, the Committee was dissolved. The inclusion of the Committee's name on the list issued by the Department of Justice, is, according to MacFARLAND, curious, in view of the fact that it has been out of existence for approximately one year.

MacFARLAND stated that the Nationalist Action League was formed on Friday, October 29, 1948 and committed itself to the task of opposing by Constitutional means, the influences of Marxism, Communism, Socialism, Political Zionism, and World Federationism. He stated that the organization has given unqualified support to the lawful republican form of government and advised that the League's entire efforts have been directed toward opposing doctrines, ideologies and groups which have proved themselves hostile to the ideals of undivided loyalty to our nation. The appearance of the Nationalist Action League as an allegedly subversive organization was a total and unexpected surprise to members of the League, since none of the organizational members have ever been questioned by the Justice Department officials, nor have they been provided with the opportunity to submit a written or oral statement of the aims and objectives of the group.

On the basis of the above, the League requests that its name and the name of its predecessor be removed from the allegedly subversive list, or that its Director be granted an opportunity to present such evidence to the Department of Justice as to accomplish this result. In conclusion, the League invited a complete investigation of its activities, by the Office of the Attorney General, the Federal Bureau of Investigation or the House Committee on Un-American Activities. (b)(7)(D) 5-2-49)

After the release of the statement by MacFARLAND denying the validity of the allegations made in the allegedly subversive list of Attorney General CLARK, MacFARLAND was advised on May 25th by PEYTON FORD in behalf of the Attorney General that the data submitted by MacFARLAND as an attachment to his statement was not sufficient to complete the removal of the League or the Committee for Nationalist Action from their assigned Fascist classification. MacFARLAND said that the reply also advised that Executive Order 9835 under which the Attorney General acted, provided no provisions for public hearing review or investigation, as requested by MacFARLAND.

MacFARLAND on May 26, 1949 in answer to this communication, stated that he requested the Attorney General to issue a Federal warrant for his arrest and trial, in order that the organizations which he represented might gain an opportunity to defend themselves. (b)(7)(D) 6-14-49)

In addition to the Attorney General's Office, MacFARLAND sought public hearing before the President's Loyalty Review Board and the

b2/b7D

House Committee on Un-American Activities. [REDACTED] 6-14-49) b2/b7D

The June 15, 1949 edition of Common Sense under the title "NAL Cleared by WOOD Committee," reflected that on May 25th in a letter addressed to his colleague, Representative JOHN BELL WILLIAMS, the Honorable JOHN S. WOOD, Chairman of the House Committee on Un-American Activities, stated that the body which he heads does not hold the Nationalist Action League or the Committee for Nationalist Action, both publicly libeled by the United States Attorney General's Office on April 27th, as being either subversive or Fascist.

VI. FUNDS

On November 7, 1948 the membership dues of the Nationalist Action League were fixed at $1.00 per month, this fee to include a yearly subscription to "National Progress" and the receipt of special literature. [REDACTED] 12-1-48) b2/b7D

In the summer of 1949, membership dues were reduced to a fee of 25¢ per month payable in advance. No registration or other fee was then required, but the payment of the first four months dues of $1.00 was to be accompanied by a $2.00 subscription to Common Sense, the League's official organ. [REDACTED] 3-2-49) b2/b7D

The informant produced a letter directed to New Readers of National Progress, which indicated that during the winter of 1948 the Nationalist Action League advertised the sale of literature which could be purchased through the organization. [REDACTED] 3-10-49) b2/b7D

During the summer of 1949 members of the Nationalist Action League and persons who assisted the League, though not members, were requested to aid the League in shouldering the burden of expenses by helping in one of the manners set out below:

1. Purchase of a year's subscription to Common Sense.

2. Purchase of ten copies of Common Sense and literature.
3. Monthly packets of literature for a year plus a subscription to Common Sense.

In September 1949, according to an informant, [REDACTED] father indicated that [REDACTED] had in his possession an index of over 200 names and that from this index he receives money in the form of donations from persons living throughout the United States. ([REDACTED] 9-16-49) b2 b7c

According to the below listed informant, at the meetings of July 22 and August 5, 1949 collections were accepted from those persons in attendance. According to this informant, in most instances donations were of an average amount of $1.00 per person. ([REDACTED] 7-22-49, 8-5-49) b2/b7D

On January 15, 1949, the below listed informant advised that the Nationalist Action League was reaching the end of its resources and that a new means of raising finances had to be found. The League indicated that these finances would be obtained;

1. By getting new members for the organization.
2. By getting new "angels" to furnish the organization with donations.

Regarding new membership, the informant advised that the League was divided, a part of them being suspicious of taking in any new members.

Regarding the second method, according to the informant, efforts to contact doctors and other professional men for support of the organization had resulted in no financial returns. ([REDACTED] 1-15-49) b2/b7D

On July 26, 1949 it was announced that the Nationalist Action League had become involved in debts amounting to $165 which had to be met on or before August 20, 1949. ([REDACTED] 7-26-49) b2/b7D

On August 1, 1949, according to the below listed informant, the debt of the Nationalist Action League was down to $95 and the same informant indicated that another $21 in payment would be made in the near future. The debt must be paid in the amount of $25 per month, inasmuch as the loan was placed with two separate companies. [redacted] advised the informant that there was no money coming in and for that reason he did not know how they would meet the next payment on the loan. [redacted] 8-1-49)

On August 6, 1949, the League requested that persons on its mailing list who are unable to donate money, loan any sum which they can afford to the Nationalist Action League until the fall. Mention was made of the requirement to pay the debts of the League by August 20, 1949, and loans received from members were to be repaid by October 30, 1949.

IX. MISCELLANEOUS

In late August 1949 [REDACTED] the publication "News Letter" and is a leader in a chartered non-profit organization known as Broadcast Incorporated in Washington, D. C., requested [REDACTED] to accept a position with him as an office employee. This position would consist of telephone contacting, checking subscription lists and planning promotion. [REDACTED] was to be paid in the amount of [REDACTED] per week, half to come from the funds of "News Letter" and the other half from Broadcast Incorporated. [REDACTED] gave the acceptance of this position considerable thought, but indicated to members of his organization that he would not accept it. [REDACTED] (8-15,18,25-49)

During a conversation regarding the position offered by [REDACTED] the confidential informant advised that [REDACTED] commented that during his employment by [REDACTED] in Detroit he was paid only [REDACTED] per week. [REDACTED] (8-18-49)

In the middle of September 1949, the confidential informant advised that [REDACTED] had recently been used as an announcer for the transcription of a radio broadcast made by [REDACTED]. According to the informant, [REDACTED] was to be used in all coming broadcasts as [REDACTED] announcer. [REDACTED] (9-22-49)

Certain investigative material has been placed on the administrative pages of this report, because the information often because of the nature of its source, cannot be completely evaluated so that on occasions two items seem to be mutually contradictory. It was felt that such material in the details would not add worthwhile investigative information and would serve to confuse the reader.

The following additional information was obtained regarding the merger of the Nationalist Action League with the National Renaissance Party as set out on Page 12 of this report. This information is placed on the Administrative Sheet, because this office has been unable to obtain verification of same.
